THE BEST OF THE SEASON.

Thursday evening at the Mansfield opera house the Mansfield Concert Band gave their fourth entertainment of the season, with an entire program of new music. Cornet solos, barytone solos, piano solos and duets and readings were among the pleasing numbers presented, in addition to the several selections rendered by the band.

The Mansfield band is composed of high class musicians of more than average ability and their music was appreciated and heartily applauded.

During the evening the band boys were treated to a shower—not a shower of water, but a shower of silver, amounting to $5.35. This shower was suggested by Ward B. Hitchcock, who found a ready and willing ally in the person of Dr. F. H. Riley, whose announcement of the shower—which was a complete surprise to the band—resulted as above stated.

The band boys are very grateful for this kindly evidence of appreciation. On behalf of the band Prof. J. A. Hylton made a brief and to-the-point talk.

The Mansfield band is a credit to Mansfield and our people were glad of this opportunity to demonstrate their approval.

The band will give one more of their entertainments this season, and we bespeak for it a liberal patronage.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach, and it is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle. "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

CREDITORS AWAIT ABSTRACT.

Delay in securing an abstract of the evidence of the first meeting of creditors of the Daniels Commission company of Willow Springs, held January 24 in Springfield, caused the second meeting, which was to have been held in the office of Referee John Schmook, to be adjourned without the transaction of any business. Trustee Britton reported that he had collected $600 from a produce company in Kansas City. This was funds, he said, which H. B. Warner, the manager of the Daniels company, had deposited with the company surreptitiously after the failure. Britton has now $1,500 on hands, with a poor outlook for collection of other funds of any consequence. The total liabilities of the defunct firm are $25,000.

Since the publication by the Kansas City Packer of the record of Warner as an inmate of the state penitentiary at Anamosa, Ia., for obtaining funds by fraud while in a commission house in that state, he has disappeared from Willow Springs and his present whereabouts are unknown.—Springfield Republican.

The Forty Year Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

WARNER AN EX-CONVICT.

New developments are gradually coming to light in the investigation of the defunct Willow Springs Commission company, which failed several weeks ago.

According to a letter written by the firm October 31, and signed by "C. F. Daniels," it was stated "the writer is the sole owner of the firm" and "we consider ourselves financially responsible not including any good will ten thousand dollars." Eighteen days after this letter was written the big smash-up occurred and poultry and egg shippers are now trying to collect around $20,000, while the total obligations are footed up at about $27,000. It is figured that from November 1 to November 18 about $20,000 worth of poultry, eggs and other produce was shipped and what has become of all this great value, including the $10,000 Daniels claimed the firm had in the clear on the first of the month, is a much discussed problem. Claude F. Daniels recently testified that he was taken sick the middle of October and that from then until the time of the failure, November 18, the business was under the management and control of F. B. Warner; in fact, that Warner was manager previously. Daniels contends that he knew very little about what was going on; that Warner had full power; that Warner was the manager; that Warner did the buying; that Warner did the banking, and that Warner kept the books. Warner testified a few days ago that the decline in the market in November caused the failure.

Just what the assets or salvage from the crash is going to amount to is a problem. It is a funny failure and one significant feature seems to be that some of the men who are in position to know and ought to know vital facts have been rather evasive on the witness stand.

The Kansas City Packer of last Saturday contained a two-column picture of Warner, which was taken while he was in the Iowa penitentiary for an offense in connection with the failure of a produce firm. The Packer prints the following under the photograph of Warner:

"The produce man who was convicted late in 1906 in Clinton, Iowa, on the charge of cheating and false pretenses. He received a sentence of four years in the state reformatory at Anamosa, Ia., where he remained in prison from November 30, 1906, until January 29, 1910, actually serving three years and two months, the remaining ten months of the four years sentence being allowed him for good behavior. The prison records of Anamosa describes Warner as a man now aged 29; as weighing 223 pounds at the time of his incarceration; height five feet nine; eyes slate blue; complexion sandy; nose straight; stout build; hair chestnut brown; scar right corner mouth. Warner's methods were exposed fully in The Packer at the time and these exposures were of material assistance to the officers of the law in finally landing him in prison. He operated at Morrison, Ill., Clinton, Iowa, and other places, his specialty being ear lot egg and poultry shipments. He had a bad reputation for making overdrafts. Checks of the concerns he operated were allowed to go to protest. He went from bad to worse until in August, 1906, he was jailed in Clinton, Iowa. He was charged with cheating, false pretenses, trying to pass bogus checks and various other offenses. When the officers finally started out with the intention of jugging him they found him promenading up Fifth avenue in Clinton. He saw them coming after him, he turned about and ran up the stairs of the Clinton Business College, where the officers reported, he tried to hide but was promptly arrested. He remained in the Clinton jail until

Adv. The Old Reliable.

He was finally sentenced late in November of that year. Warner has been a heavy operator as a car lot shipper of eggs and poultry in his day and many people have reason to remember him to their sorrow through dealings with him.—Cahoon Enterprise.

MORE ABOUT "OUR BOYS AND GIRLS."

I wish to announce for the benefit of the mother who wrote so eloquently this last week upon the subject of "Our Girls and Boys," that the advice was good, but we hope, and earnestly, too, that the much-peddled advice is not needed in all the good homes of Mansfield. I sincerely believe that the mother covered too much territory.

Now, the girls and boys who go skating, and more especially those who go opossum hunting, are frequently accompanied by fathers or older persons than themselves. Those who doubt this statement may feel free to investigate.

The author wrote very emphatically and made several broad assertions—too broad unless backed by varied experience, from which source we hope her knowledge did not come.

The reflection cast upon the teachers of the young girls and boys was ridiculous, to say the least of it. I feel sure that there is not a teacher in the Mansfield school but who would be willing to uncover their character and past life and put same on exhibition with that of the Mother Peddler.

We are not as pessimistic as you are, Mother. We do not highly upon the manhood and womanhood of America.

Just because one or two of our girls have had their characters blighted recently, and a desperado from Douglas county was arrested here a few days ago, we must not think the world is going to the bad, or that there are no good boys and girls at all. There are some left yet whose characters are as pure as the water that flows by God's throne.

We must know that the minds of our young folks are not as poison as some mothers would have us believe. We appreciate the fact that not all of our girls are afraid of themselves, even if Mother does not confide in them. It is not every boy or girl that keeps his or her mind loaded with corruptness, ready to discharge when associated with the opposite sex, but by association is made to awaken to a realization of relationship and jointly know God's purposes concerning them.

Mother, please do not try to place scandal upon us all. Most of us have lawful names, not many of us have been disinherited and a very small per cent of us have been in a reform school.

Mother, this world expects much from you. It is you we look to for the future generation of men and women fit to inherit this glorious Union.

Visit school again, find out more about the marble games (or keeps), make further inquiry about "night skating," investigate "opossum hunting," hunt your daughter when out of sight, write frequently the information gained to your newspaper and your mission will have been filled.

ENTERTAINMENT AT JAIL.

When Sheriff Creer took charge of his office the first of the year he determined to make the county jail a little more attractive, and scrubbing brush, new paint and fresh kalsomine soon worked wonders. As a fitting climax he decorated the building with bunting and otherwise, and last Friday he threw open the doors of the bastille and entertained the Embroidery club, composed of about 25 of Hartsville's good-looking ladies. We doubt if there is another county in Missouri in shape to duplicate this "stunt" of our handsome bachelor sheriff.—Mountain Grove Journal.
